SAMUEL AND JULIA.

OUPID AND CROSS PURPOSES IN THE NEWARK

The last session of the Newark Presbytery furnished a sensation of widespread interest in the matter of the trial of Rev. Mr. See for violating St. Paul's command in that he did not compel women to keep silence in his church. The Presbytery is now in session again, and yesterday, at the close of the afternoon session, well on toward evening, took up what is known as the wman case-"and thereby hangs a tale." Upon a motion made the session was prolonged, in order that a report might be presented from a special committee appointed at the last meeting of Presbytery on the above case. Rev. Smith read the report. Before giving the essence of the latter it is best to spread out in brief the cts of the case. Samuel A. Bowman is a good looking young "limb of the law," twenty-eight years old, who resides with his father at Caldwell. Near the Bowman family dwells Miss Julia Orton who, though blind in the ordinary sense, is not as regards the lovable qualities of Samuel. Some five years age Julia commissioned Samuel to go to New York and purchase a plane for her. She gave him $275. He bought for her it biano that, as he declares, coat $350. Samuel now wants the $105 he pand for the plane over the amount given him. Julia, it appears, is quite willing to give this it she herself is taken also. To the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the offer Samuel objects. And there the latter part of the object of the church at Caldwell, and got into a dispute mout certain fences alongside. Mr. Bowman got the best of the church at Caldwell, and got into a dispute not the dispute. Then, as it is alleged, the pastor family the company of the church, few. Charles T. Borry, preferred a grave tharge in the church against young Bowman, who was a member. The charge was that in the plane transaction Samuel paid only $250 for the instrument, and basely pocketed the surplus $25 belonging to Miss Julia. The pastor has a paper signed by the piano dealers saying that $250 was paid. He was tried and suspended. He demanded a hearing from the Presbytery. A committee was appointed and it was this which reported yesterday. In the report Rev. Dra. J. F. Smith, J. F. Stearns and J. Reove Sayre, the committee declare that they gave the matter careful examination and find that the church at Caldwell cred in flading Mr. Bowman guilty of the offence charged against him and executed sentence upon him without parts. In the report concludes with the recommendation that the sossion of the church at Caldwell be airected to proceed at once to the regular trial of Mr. Samuel A. Bowman and to i man family dwells Miss Julia Orton who, though blind in the ordinary sense, is not as regards the lovable

UNITARIAN CONFERENCE.

The New York and Hudson River Conference of the Unitarian Church was in session yesterday at the Church of Our Saviour (Rev. Dr. Putpam's), corner of Mouroe place and Pierrepont street, Brooklyn. Troy Church reported that Rev. William H. Fish had accepted the call to that church and was present at the Conference. No report from Albany. The Newburg Church reported that their pastor has left them; that the church was in good condition financially, and the prospects for the future were bright. No report from Yonkers. The church at llarlem reported that the church was without a pastor, and in debt to the amount of $400, a subscription of $900 which had been made among the churches had not been collected on account of some factious opposition. The Church of the Messiah in this city reported that their only difficulty was finances; the church, however, was in a fair condition; they were in the utmost harmony regarding their pastor, Rev. Mr. Algier. The Church of All Souls (Rev. Dr. Bellows) was reported to be in good condition. The Unitarian churches of Brooklyn were all reported to be prospering. accepted the call to that church and was present at the METHODIST CONFERENCES.

RONDOUT, N. Y., April 4, 1877. The New York Methodist Episcopal Conference began its eighty-seventh annual session in Kingston this morning. Bishop W. L. Harris presides. He spoke of the death of Bishop Janes who had been designated to preside, and recommended appropriate memorial action. Rev. Alexander McLean was chosen Secretary, and Rev. A Ostrander and C. W. Millard assistants. A letter was read from Rev. William Lloyd, announcing his withdrawal from the Church pending the discussion on the disagreement in the White Platus Church. The Conference then adjourned till to-morrow. There was preaching this alternoon by Rev. John Johns, and this evening by Rev. Dr. Loss and Rev. Dr. Luil.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 4, 1877.

The New York East Conference began its session today at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Bishop Jesse T. Peck presiding and Rev. Daniel Goodsell, sec. retary. To-day's session was devoted to organization, the appointment of committees, &c. A part of the exercises will be a lecture by Joseph Cook, of Boston, at the Opera House this evening.

NEW ENGLAND CONFERENCE.

The New England Conference opened this morning at the First Methodist Church at Lynn, Rev. Bishop Foster, D. D., presiding, and Mr. A. Manning being chosen scretary.

THE GOSPEL OF PEACE.

Onestio

olutions on the Southern question, presented by Rev. W. F. Mallalieu, D. D., of Boston, were received with great applause, and referred to a special commit-tee. The preamble to the resolutions review the brighting effects of slavery and the two final resolu-tions are in substance as follows:—

Resolved. That we protest most carnestly against the action of the new administration in making terms with the chief of the Kukiux instigator of the Hamburg massacre, M. C. Butler, and still more carnestly do we protest against the official recognition by the administration of that arch enemy of the Republic, who lous since ought to have been hing for treason, Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, and who now, by threats and intimidation under the very roof of the White House, as well as on callroad platforms and in other public places, deles the power of the government and builties the Fresdent into compliance with his traiterous and winded using ations.

Rev. D. Sherman, D. D., presiding elder of the Boston district, presented the report, and the Confer-ence adjourned.

CHURCH AID.

The ladies of the Grace Baptist Church, Fifty-third street, near Seventh avenue, will give the third entertainment of their series in aid of the "purchase fond" at the church this evening. The programme consists of readings by Miss Louisa Lessie, interspersed with music by Miss Rosaite Rosenbidth, of New York, who will preside at the plano. Miss Lessie comes to this city with a famous New England reputation as a reader, while Miss Rosenbiath is well known in musical circles as an amateur of unusual promise. The enterth is expected to be crowded.

A VICIOUS OLD WRETCH

Martin Delany, about fifty years of age, who keeps a second hand bookstore at No. 85 Sixth avenue, was arraigned before Judge Otterbourg, at Jefferson Market Police Court, vesterday, on two separate charges of indecent assault preferred by two little girls, eight of indecent assault preferred by two little girls, eight and nine years of age respectively. Delany was arrested fuesday evening by Officer McDowell, of the Ninth precinct, the parent of one of the children who had been assaulted having made a complaint at the Charles street station house. After his arrest became known it was discovered by the parents of several children resuling in Barrow, Grove and Morton atreets and vicinity, that similar assaults had been made on their children. It was Delany's habit to intercept the children on their way home from school and by gifts of toy books and pennies entice them into his place, which is a basement not visible to passers and by gitts of toy books and pennise chites them into his place, which is a basement not visible to passers by in the street. It is said that as many as thriteen persons called at the Charles street station house yes-terday in reference to this wretch. Two complaints were taken against him in court and he was held in $500 buil to mewer on each.

CITY DEBT STATEMENT.

Comptroller Kelly yesterday issued his monthly statement of the city's finances. The debt on March 21 was $122,611,428 78. The total amount of stocks and bonds issued during the three months of 1877 was $4.580,301 90. During the same period warrants were drawn by the Comptroller, for all purposes, amounting to $3,408,201 74.

MUNICIPAL NOTES.

Several of the heads of city departments assembled at the Mayor's office yesterday for the purpose of holding their usual monthly conference. No regular meeting was held and no formal discussion took place.

"THEM TWO UDDER FELLERS."

William Britt and James Long, two little sc were yesterday belore Justice Morgan, at the Hariem Police Court, on a charge of disorderly conduct. The oys snuffled and knuckled their eyes as though they believed the offence to be a capital one.

"Twas ever thus," mused it is Honor, "all the bad boys in every Sunday school book ever read, were named Bill and Jim. Prisoners at the bar, what say you—guilty, or not guilty?"

The culprite redoubled their snuffling and knuckling and velped in chorus, "No, it was dem two udder felers!"

The complainant, a young lady and a teacher in one of the schools, then took the youngsters in hand. "What!" she exclaimed, "didd't you chaik bad words on the sidewalk? And did you not put taron the door knobs? And do you deny that you throw that dead cat in at the hall window?"

"No," the urchins bawled, "them udder fellers fired it."

His Honor said he would take the papers and reserve his decision, but he thought it was a case of House of Refuge for the term of their natural lives. More howis. And, in the meantime, he would immure them in the deepest dungeon beneath the Court House stairs. Awful yells. Five minutes afterward they were brought into court again andfrelessed upon taking the pleage. As they departed from the court room each was presented with a copper coin by a benevolent old gentleman, and when last seen, their faces smeared with taffy, both were "hooking" a ride on a 125th street car.

LEGAL MUSCLE.

Two lawyers, named respectively Crosby and Meyers, not content with indulging their litigious proclivities mently in the corridor. From words they soon came to blows, and for a brief time the scene was both to blows, and for a brief time the scene was both lively and exening. There was quite a disparity in the size of the belligerents. The little one showed pluck, however, and struck his opponent in the face. This was rather more than the bigger one could stand, so he in turn struck out from the shoulder, prostrating his hiliputian assailant at a single blow, after which he sat on him and thus tried to squelch him. The combatants were then separated, and departed from the building not, however, without expressing all kinds of threats against each other, and with mutual vows of vengeance dire.

DESTITUTION IN JERSEY CITY.

The congregation of large groups of unemployed aborers, yesterday, in the vicinity of Beacon, Laid law, Summit and Newark avenues, Jersey City, gav rise to rumors that a bread riot was imminent. In formation was sent to the Third precinct station and the police were on the alert, but no cause arose fo great destitution prevailing among their families. Many who had worked during the winter on half time and for small wages are now entirely idle. From the statements made it would seem that the destitution i far greater than the public ever supposed. Grocers and other creditors not being able to obtain paymen and other creditors not being able to obtain payment of their bilis are also in great straits. This section of Jersey City is densely populated with the laboring class, hundreds of whom found employment in the excavation of the new tunnel, but as that enterprise is now completed these laborers are thrown out of employment. The reduction of the hands on the Eric Italiway recently has added to the discontent and destitution. There are no street or public improvements in progress. Some of the men propose to send a committee to wait on Mayor Stedler and ask him to recommend to the Boards of Finance and Public Works under the incoming administration the necessity for some public improvements which have been suspended for the past three years under the policy of municipal economy.

THE ELEVATED RAILROAD.

The temporary depot of the Elevated Railroad at Whitehall street is almost completed and everything put in readiness for the opening of the road to the South ferry to-day. A new passenger depot at the foot of Morris street was finished yesterday evening, and the old one at the Bowling Green was closed. The new station at Morris street is intended for the accomnew station at Morris street is intended for the accommodation of business men who found the old depot convenient when their business had closed for the day. Trains from the South terry will reach this point in three minutes after starting. The new time table making provision for 228 trains over the road daily takes effect to-day. Byathe new schedule the trains of the Elevated road will connect with all the trains of the Hudson River Railroad. The officers think that with their present arrangements all the possible facilities for rapid and comortable travel as far as their road extends on the west side is afforded to the public. In order to make the road across the Bastiery as ornamental as possible, trailing vines will be interwoven between the columns, which will completely hide the superstructure from view.

RAPID TRANSIT IN JERSEY,

The New Jersey Central Railroad officials have agreed to take the sum of $700 subscribed by citizens in the Bergen district of Jersey City and locate a station at the Jackson avenue crossing. This will prove a con-venience to a large number of passengers in this growing section. The residents of the Hadson City section have been agitating for the past two years the question of having a passenger station located at the Baidwin avenue crossing of the Fennsylvania Rairroad; but they have not yet succeeded, though it would solve the question of rapid transit to a very important district of the city.

THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE.

Red signal flags floated from both towers of the Brooklyn Bridge yesterday morning to inform vessels that an attempt was in progress to adjust the guide wires for the main cables. In consequence, however, of the high whol blowing over the river it was impossible to proceed with the work. Another attempt to accomplish the desired result will be made to-day.

THE BOOK TRADE SALE.

The publishers are very much encouraged by the way the trade sale has gone so far. All the books that were worth abything brought good prices and those that were worthless brought little. This division of the spoils has given general satisfaction, as publishers are a sensible lot of men, though they sometimes make mistakes in gauging public tastes, as the Osgood clearance sale proved. The sale yesterday by the Messrz Leavitt was a little better than that of the day before. In most instances the books were duplicated, and the demand for good books was greater than the catalogue supply. To-day and to-morrow will be the heaviest days of the sale, Large invoices from the Scribner firms and the Harpers come on those days.

THE HEMPSTEAD RESERVOIR.

The referces appointed by the City Court to examine the evidence in the claim of Messra. Kingsley & Keeney, contractors for the Hempstead Storage Reservoir, for "extra" services and material, amounting to $178,000, resumed their long suspended proceedings yesterday in the Common Council Chamber, Brooklyn. James M. Smith, contractor, was examined as to the vaine of labor and the price of excavating in 1872, when the costly reservoir was commenced. Wilham B. Kannedy, Moses Noyes, John J. Flanigan and W. A. Kellogg also testified, as experts, as to the prices current at that time for the work performed by the plaintiffa.

A NEW STEAMER LAUNCHED.

The Old Dominion Steamship Company have added a new steamer to their line. She is named the Acco-mac, and was launched yesterday with the usual ceremonies from the ship yard of C. & R. Poillon, Bridge street, Brooklyn. Her machinery will be put on board at the Morgan Irou Works, in this city. The Accounts is 135 feet in length on the keel, 25 feet beam and 8 feet 6 inches depth of hold.
